Annual Fall Festival Returns to Downtown DC

Celebrate Fall with Seasonal Fun for All and Family-Friendly Activities at RRB/ITC

WASHINGTON, DC — Embrace the beauty of the season at the annual Fall Festival on Woodrow Wilson Plaza, happening Wednesday, October 29, 2025, at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center \(RRB/ITC\). This free, midweek celebration brings together the DC community for a day filled with family fun, local food, and festive entertainment.

From 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM, Woodrow Wilson Plaza will be bustling with seasonal activities. Kids can enjoy hands-on fun at the pumpkin decorating station, weave through the hay bale maze, or get their faces painted with colorful designs. Visitors can join in the excitement with balloon twisting, stilt walkers, and live DJ music, setting a lively backdrop for the day. The National Children's Museum will host engaging, family-friendly activities that combine creativity and learning.

Sip on complimentary hot cider, soak up the fall atmosphere, and enjoy seasonal bites and global flavors from Capital Harvest on the Plaza \(CHoP\) —marking the final market of the season. Whether you come decked out in costume or simply ready to celebrate, this festival promises a cheerful dose of fall fun for everyone.

The event is free, open to the public, and weather permitting. Activities are available while supplies last.
