Live! Concert Series on the Plaza Kicks Off 21st Season

50-show series offers free, lunchtime performances in Downtown DC featuring DMV's top musicians

Washington, DC – As events and activities return to the Downtown area, Live! Concert Series on the Plaza, one of DC's longest-running free concert series, is back at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center (RRB/ITC). The series kicks off on Monday, July 11th with acclaimed reggae band, Tony Roy & Yawd Lynk. The weekday performances continue through September 16th, from noon to 1:00 pm on Wilson Plaza.

Presenting some of the area's most talented entertainers, locals and passersby can enjoy free, lunchtime performances and get a taste of the district's native music scene. The lineup includes well-known groups like Back Yard Band, DC Mariachi, Shirleta Settles, E. U. featuring Sugar Bear, Brencore Allstars, Sirius Company featuring Scooby & Ms. Kim and more. The 10-week, 50-show series features a variety of musical flavors such as jazz, bluegrass, swing, Latin, reggae, country, R&B, and Go-Go, making Live! ideal for all audiences. See full schedule.

Concert visitors can also "Play on the Plaza," enjoying activities such as corn hole and giant connect four or take advantage of the weekly farmer's market, Capital Harvest on the Plaza (CHoP) that offers farm-fresh produce, artisanal treats and local eats on Fridays. With plenty of outdoor seating and lunch options available inside the building's food court, the Plaza is a perfect place for music lovers of all ages to enjoy the diverse sounds of the DMV area.

Live! launched in 2000 as part of the RRB/ITC's mission to offer free-to-the-public programming on Wilson Plaza—helping to create a stronger community connection in Downtown DC and activating the space which serves as a thoroughfare between the National Mall and business district north of Pennsylvania Avenue. Live! is a program of RRB/ITC and is sponsored by TCMA (A Drew Company).
